JOE LAURIE HAS GOOD COMEDY IN VAUDEVILLE ACT

Every now and then the theatre-goer will run into a vaudeville bill which possesses among its acts a real comedian, one who, unassisted, can strut back and forth across the stage and keep his audience ringing with laughter. The Columbia program for the last half of the week has such an individual in Joe Laurie, Jr., who is billed as the "pint-sized comedian." Anger and Packer, "two Fifth Avenue types," have a snappy line of chatter that went over big. The "Schoolmaster," a kid school act, with six pupils and a teacher, entertained in happy fashion with songs and comedy. Rogers and West talked and whistled. Love and Wilbur have a high class trapeze act, and Bartholdi's birds, the closing act, showed the results of painstaking efforts in training varieties of the feathered tribe.

CAR WITH A CARGO
FRANK AND EUGEN
DITCHED AT ERIE

(Special to The Argus.)

Erie, Oct. 15.—Otto Holman, living near Erie, discovered a peculiar accident late Tuesday evening, as he was driving to his home from town. He had crossed the high grade just south of here when he heard cries for help, apparently coming from the ditch at the side of the grade. Upon investigation he found an overturned auto with a man pinned underneath. As he was unable to lift the machine alone he returned to town and called upon members of a lodge which was in session for help. A number went to the scene of the accident with him and the man was extricated from his perilous position. He was brought to town and taken to a doctor's office, where it was found that no bones were broken, but one arm and shoulder were badly wrenched. He remained in town over night and then returned to his home. His name was not learned. He claimed to be from Moline and was on his way to Sterling, Ill. A box of yeast and a quantity of sugar were found in the automobile.

Danderine is "Beauty-Tonic"

Immediately after a "Danderine" beauty massage, your hair takes on new life, lustre and wondrous beauty, appearing twice as heavy and plentiful, because each hair seems to thicken. Don't let your hair stay lifeless, colorless, plain or scraggly. You, too, want lots of long, strong hair glistening with beauty.

A 35-cent bottle of delightful "Danderine" freshens your scalp, checks dandruff and falling hair. This stimulating "beauty-tonic" gives to thin, dull, fading hair that youthful brightness and abundant thickness. All drug counters sell Danderine.

Editorial

Never in the history of merchandising has advertising been carried on by merchants to the extent that it is at the present time. There is advertising and advertising, till the buyer's mind is bewildered.

One of the foundation principles of this store was "Honest Advertising." That has been the secret of success in every sale we have given. That accounts for the wonderful success of our Golden Jubilee sale just closing, and whatever turn merchandising may take in the future, honesty shall be read into every word of our advertisements.
